Expedition 2018 – Explore your opportunities

Kitzbühel, January 25 - January 28, 2018

Discover our diversity and learn how you can build your individual profile at McKinsey: Expedition 2018 offers you the opportunity to start your personal journey.

Create your own curriculum of interactive workshops with our industry and practice experts, be inspired by key note speeches and discussion panels, and develop your leadership skills. Experience what only McKinsey can offer you: exciting topics, diverse challenges, and excellent development opportunities.

We invite you to join us for four days at McKinsey's Alpine University in Kitzbühel, Austria. Please apply by November 20, 2017. The event is open to young professionals with up to six years work experience and mature master, PhD, and postdoc students.
