Roland Berger's exclusive Social Event

How does consulting create value? What does a typical project assignment look like? What do I get out of strategy consulting? How does Roland Berger differ from the other consulting companies out there?

With this event we would like to give students from the University of St.Gallen the exclusive opportunity to take part in an exceptional event. Moreover, you will get insights into our RB Zurich office on a very personal base. Take the chance and get to know us in a relaxed atmosphere with beer & BBQ and pester us with many questions.

Who: Bachelor students (3rd semester onwards), master students and PhD students (m/w)

When: May 17, 2019, 4 p.m. until approx. 8 p.m.

Where: Roland Berger, Holbeinstrasse 22, 8008 Zürich

Interested? Then apply with your CV (including information about your grades as well as your practical experiences) until April 21, 2019.
